Back to School with Young Scot

It's that time of year again and Young Scot are pleased to be supporting young people as they return to school with the help of the Young Scot National Entitlement Card (Young Scot NEC) and our wider services.

The Young Scot NEC

Did you know your child can use their Young Scot NEC to pay for school lunches? Speak to your child's school or local authority to find out more.

Young people who are 5-21 years old can apply for a new or replacement National Entitlement Card (NEC) or Young Scot NEC to access the Young Persons' Free Bus Travel Scheme. Parents or guardians of children aged 5-15 years, must apply on their behalf. Find more information at freebus.scot.

Information

young.scot is Scotland's leading website for young people. Your child can find tons of quality-assured information articles and videos on mental health, relationships, money, employment, education and more. We're also on Snapchat, Instagram, Facebook, TikTok and YouTube.

Volunteering

If your child is applying for college/university or even their first job, they can stand out from the crowd by having volunteering on their CV or personal statement. Our volunteering service #YSHive always has opportunities available for young people aged 11-25 where they can make new friends, learn new skills, and have their voices heard.
